Neumann-Faseler.

The event of the season was the marriage of Miss Edna Neumann and Mr. George Faseler, solemnized at the M. E. Church, South, in Hondo on Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, at 4:15 o'clock by Rev. M. K. Fred.

The groom is a well known citizen of Hondo. The bride is the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neumann of Hondo.

A crowded house was entertained for a few minutes by the sweet voice of Mrs. Harper Fly, after which Miss Annie Callahan played the wedding march, which was led by Louis Carter and Sterling Fly.

The bride was dressed by her aunt, Mrs. W. F. Vansant, and wore a handsome gown of white satin with beaded net tunic and shadow lace trimmings.

The bridal bouquet was arranged by Mrs. Tom McCall and was composed of white roses with fern and satin ribbon with loops of chiffon. The bride carried a dainty drawn work handkerchief, the present of Mrs. E. W. Lacy.

The happy couple were the recipients of many useful and expensive presents. They left on the evening train for San Antonio amid a shower of rice and good wishes for a long and happy life.

A FRIEND.

The Rain.

December was ushered in by the wettest season known in years. It rained every day for the first four days of the month, and a total precipitation of 4.21 inches was registered.

The rain for the most part fell gently and the ground is thoroughly soaked. Past crops and winter pastures were greatly benefited. Land that has been broken will be in an ideal condition for planting corn in February and farmers who have not plowed their land will be delayed with their work.

Reports from over the state are that the rain has been general and heavy, and in many places considerable flood damage has been reported. The streams in this immediate section have been swollen but no material damage is reported. The water in the Medina Reservoir was reported 116 feet deep at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The 4.21 inches of rain that has fallen since Dec. 1st and the 4.99 inches that fell in November makes a total of 9.20 inches of rainfall within the last 35 days and is one of the best fall seasons that has been known in several years.

A Prince of His Race.

Oscar Graham and his excellent company presented this play to a fair sized audience at the Auditorium Saturday night. Owing to the muddy streets not so many turned out as on previous occasions and those who failed to attend missed a treat. The play is less preachy than some of Mr. Graham's other productions and at the same time is clean and moral and affords a vehicle for some fine acting.

The following is the cast and synopsis of the play:

Phil Stanley, A College Bred Indian..... OSCAR GRAHAM
Margaret Rogers, Daughter of Felix..... Loretta Graham
John Redmond, Alias Gentleman Jack..... Fred R. Wascher
Murdock, A Horse Thief..... H. W. Gray
Charley Rogers, An Ex-Cow-boy..... Ray M. Read
Tim, A Servant..... Ed. C. Paulus
Felix Rogers, A Speculator..... James Thompson

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heart-felt thanks to our relatives and friends for kindness shown us during our sad bereavement, the illness and death of our darling baby girl, Velma Lorene Green. Words fail to express our thanks and deep gratitude for the beautiful floral offerings. Especially do we thank our Bros. Marlin and Moses and friends for the sweet service held at the grave. Such comforting words, sweet songs and ardent prayers help to reconcile us to our loss which is so hard to bear.

THE PARENTS AND GRAND-PARENTS.

FRITZ FEERICHS.

Married.

Mr. Earle P. Ulbrich and Miss Zillah Polk were happily married Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Polk, a few miles west of D'Hanis. Rev. M. K. Fred of this place performed the service.

Mr. Ulbrich is a young farmer of the D'Hanis neighborhood and is a son of J. W. Ulbrich of this place. He is a deserving young man and the Anvil Herald congratulates him on winning so charming a bride. Bon voyage to the happy couple.

Died.

Little Velma Lorene Green, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Green, died at the home of her parents near Hondo Friday, November 28, 1913, at 3:20 o'clock P. M., after a few days illness. The little body was tenderly laid to rest in the new cemetery Saturday afternoon, Revs. Marlin and Moses conducting the funeral service.

The Anvil Herald joins in the general sympathy for the bereaved family.

THE PAIGE

At the Game—

Yes, take your Paige to the Game—or to the Theater, the Reception or the Wedding, for that matter. Wherever expensive cars mingle, there the Paige is in its element.

For, leaving aside its cost now, the Paige has every characteristic of the expensive cars. It is equipped with electric starting system and electric lighting system—the Gray & Davis. America's costliest cars use the same Gray & Davis system.

The Paige has big non-skid rear tires, multiple disc cork insert clutch, ventilating windshield, Stewart speedometer, Jiffy curtains, 5 demountable rims, Bosch magneto—every refinement you could find in any car is here for you in the Paige.

And any man who can own a car at all can own a Paige. Its long graceful lines, its deep luxurious upholstery, its brilliance of finish and liberality of equipment give no hint of the price that brings this marvelous car to your home.

Know the Paige—for your pride's sake and the pleasure of your family, know the Paige. Come look it over. This morning, if you like—or any week day until supper time. After you have owned it a while, you'll thank us for having called the Paige to your attention.

How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause upon the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sulphate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

There is another and a better way. You don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.

Changeable Climate

IS A CONSTANT THREAT TO THE HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE.

Dr. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, discusses an important health topic. He says:

Yes, it is the climate, not the germs, that we have to fear in this country. The germs are present, to be sure, and are of some significance in diagnosis. Climate, a changeable climate, is the true cause of disease. The atmospheric pressure varies, the humidity of the atmosphere changes. Every day the temperature rises and falls. All this presents to the body very great trials to adjust to.

The area of high pressure forms in the northwest. Moves rapidly southeast, subjecting millions of our population to its influence. The result is, thousands upon thousands of people catch cold. A small per cent. of these thousands do not get well of their cold. It goes into pneumonia, or chronic catarrh, or bronchitis, or laryngitis, or pleurisy.

Now, what I am getting at is this. These climatic changes are inevitable. No one can prevent them. The very best we can do is to prepare for them, defend ourselves against them.

Good health is the best preventive. The very best. Vigorous health, with excess vitality, this is Nature's own preventive and protection.

We do not all have this, however. Some of us must have assistance. The assistance that I use for myself, would recommend for my friends to use, my neighbors and my countrymen, is Pe-ru-na. Keep Pe-ru-na in the house.

If the children indicate they are catching cold, give them Pe-ru-na.

If the parents, the grandfather or grandmother, present those symptoms that are so well known which precede a cold, a few doses of Pe-ru-na and the deed is done.

Some people are very subject to colds. Others who have weak lungs and are timid about our winter weather, take Pe-ru-na off and on during the whole winter season. The plan is a good one. The medicine is inexpensive. It does no possible harm to the system. It keeps the appetite regular and keen. It assists digestion and helps the user through the inclement weather of winter.

Nature Tells You

As Many a Hondo Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are weak. Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's index. Infrequent or too frequent passage. Other disorders suggest kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for disordered kidneys.

People in this vicinity testify to their worth.

Mrs. A. L. Dela Zerda, Floresville, Texas, says: "Frequently, I suffered from a dull ache across my back and it was impossible for me to do my housework. Doan's Kidney Pills made a positive cure and no symptoms of the trouble have returned. Others of the family have found Doan's Kidney Pills no less beneficial than myself. I gladly confirm the statement I gave some time ago, praising them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dela Zerda had. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop., Buffalo, N. Y.

People who depend upon luck usually experience only the bad variety.

The Man Who Neglects Himself.

When his condition points to kidney trouble takes an unwise risk. Backache, pain and soreness over the kidneys, nervous or dizzy spells, poor sleep, are all symptoms that will disappear with the regular use of Foley Kidney Pills. They put the kidneys and bladder in a clean, strong and healthy condition. W. H. Windrow.

Another absolute fallacy is that two can live as cheaply as one.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will completely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Overworked, run down, "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Brill's experience.

Croup and Cough Remedy.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. You don't save money when you buy cheap or big-can baking powder. Don't be misled. Buy Calumet. It's more economical—more wholesome—gives best results. Calumet is far superior to sour milk and soda.

AGRICULTURAL LAND FOR SALE!

Improved and Unimproved

In placing my holdings on the market, consisting of lands around Charlotte and Jourdanton, both improved and unimproved, I do so with the knowledge that these lands are most favorably situated and offer every convenience to those seeking homes. Within easy reach of every point are modern gins, well equipped schools, commodious churches, good roads lead everywhere, to nearby railroad stations and the best markets in Texas.

This property has not been offered earlier because these very necessary advantages were not to be had, but now they are a reality---nothing is left to speculation or future contingencies. Settlers now have all the advantages that can be found anywhere in a fully developed community without paying the prices that are asked in the older sections. You can have the benefit, for I am offering you the most desirable opportunity in Texas.

These lands are as good as can be had in South Texas; there are no better anywhere. Plenty of water can be obtained on any tract and shallow wells can be located at small cost furnishing an abundance of good water. The soil is fertile, there are no crop failures on these farms and no irrigation is necessary. No section of the state offers a more healthy or delightful climate, winter or summer.

How to Secure a Handsome HAND DECORATED Dinner Set Free!

Trade is never so brisk but any store can handle more of it. Being no exception to this general rule we expect to increase our business by offering for CASH TRADE premiums of the greatest value that have ever been given out.

A housekeeper may acquire a whole set of this chinaware at absolutely no expense by simply buying the goods you need in our line of us at prices always the lowest.

We desire to inform you that we have a contract with the oldest and one of the largest potteries in the United States to furnish us with a quantity of High Grade, Richly Decorated Semi-Porcelain Ware. The arrangement we have made with this pottery enables us to keep the Pattern in open stock and as an advertisement to place a handsome dinner set in every home in this vicinity.

The quality of this ware is first-class in every particular, the utmost care being taken in its manufacture, and it will not break or chip as easily as most ware does, and is guaranteed against crazing. The decorations are burned into the glaze, thus making them permanent.

The distribution of these handsome dinner sets will not effect our prices in any department. All goods you buy from us will represent the most and best that your money can buy elsewhere.

We are giving you an opportunity to secure a complete DINNER SET as an advertisement to increase our business and to show in a substantial way that we appreciate your trade.

We accordingly extend you a special invitation to call at our store and inspect these beautiful dishes. It will be to your advantage to call at once so we can explain to you our plan in detail.

Hondo Mercantile Co.

GIFTS FOR BOYS

Something for a boy seems often to be a puzzling question. Don't puzzle any more. Come and see what we have. Here are a few items that will please boys: Books, the standard gift; game boards; games, all the new ones; brushes; toilet articles; a medallion for his room; or a musical instrument is perhaps just what he wants. A purse, a pocket-book, or a camera is something every boy likes.

FOR THE MEN FOLKS

We have often been told by the ladies that "It is so hard to buy presents for men". We have demonstrated often that it is not hard at our store. Men like gifts combining usefulness with convenience. They want them to be good in quality. We have a large assortment of articles that will touch a man's heart. Among them are Shaving sets, military brushes, traveling sets, hat brushes, collar boxes, cuff boxes, pocket-books, fountain pens, a picture for the room, a shaving mirror, one of the late books, a year's subscription to some magazine, ink stands, clothes brushes, cigars if he smokes, a Bible if he will use it, Christmas cards, etc.

FOR THE GIRLS

There should be no trouble in the selection of gifts for this class, especially when you come to this store. Here are a few hints: Books—scores of them—especially for girls, pocket books, work boxes made solely for girls, fancy articles in celluloid, silver, etc., pictures that are certain to please, toilet articles, cameras—the gift that never misses the mark, games—all kinds at all prices, Bibles, perfumes—even very little girls like perfumes.

GIFTS FOR WOMEN

Those who are puzzled as to what to give a lady had better consult this list, make memoranda, and then come and see other things. We lack sufficient space to mention all the stock. Books—padded leather gift edition for instance, albums—all the latest designs, toilet cases—a superb gift, music rolls—often just the thing, manicure sets—every woman wants one, fancy candle sticks—have to have them nowadays, fine China—never any doubt about this, vases—we have some beauties, medallions—can't miss it on this item, mirrors in all styles, pocket books in all the new leathers, perfumes that are always suitable.

Of course, I have many more gift articles as well as all kinds of toys, etc., too numerous to mention. Come and see my stock, and if there is any thing you want ordered I will get it for you gladly.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging
Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
Up in Despair. Husband
Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its firing me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Jealous Lion Tamer's Terrible
Revenge: an Unusual Case of Murder and Suicide.

By H. W. STONE.

"It was Marenco & Hoyt's Consolidated shows in 1895," said the old circus man settling himself comfortably back in the luxurious seat in the smoking compartment of the Pullman. "We got out two weeks ahead of the season and the way the public took to the pine boards that year made even the old timers sit up and take notice.

"They hadn't begun to 'Loop the Gap' in those days and the show that could bill the country with a trained lion act came pretty close to holding a 'no draw' hand.

"I had Helena and her lions safe under a two-year contract when our foreign agent wrote to me about a Frenchman who had loomed up over there with a thriller. The thrill came when he hobnobbed at close quarters with his 20 man-eaters.

"I figured it would be a shame not to let our poster artists have a chance at that, and after imagining some other fellow's name posted up alongside, I decided our folks could stand for two lion acts, that is, when the other fellow didn't have any. So I sent along a contract and it came back signed.

"When I got Martelli and Helena in my office before we left our winter quarters that spring I was just a wee bit interested to see how they were going to hitch.

"But nature had been awfully kind to Helena, and although I never felt quite sure enough of my own judgment to choose a wife, I'd go on the records as declaring that woman a home run when it came to the look-glass.

"Martelli was a Frenchman, the kind that never bothered to frappe his absinthe but just took it straight. Those kind of fellows don't ever get much below the surface, you know, when it comes to a woman, so as far as Martelli was concerned I wasn't calculating on having any trouble.

"I watched 'em pretty close, though, when we opened at the Garden, but to all appearances things were rosy, and it was just six weeks later when any fears I had had about those rival acts were put at rest. We were showing in Chicago at the time and one evening I espied Helena and the Frenchman having supper together at one of the restaurants, seated well back among the palms where nothing much reached them except the strains of music from the stringed orchestra.

"That looked pretty safe to me and as there is quite a difference between the show business and cutting coupons for a living, I soon lost track of them beyond the fact that they were a couple of the best advertisers we ever had had with our tents.

"Two days before we struck Montgomery on our last big swing up the coast, Martelli came to me and arranged for a monthly draft which he always sent to his mother over at Marseilles. He didn't appear as chipper as usual and I noticed a worn expression about his face which seemed to indicate sleepless nights and trouble of some kind. I asked if the constant traveling had a bad effect on his lions, making them harder to manage, but he told me his lions were all right, and after thanking me, walked away. I wondered then if the lines were tangled anywhere, but those devils are as full of whims, you know, as a circus elephant is of peanuts, so I wasn't surprised to see him the next day with a smile on his face and, for all I could see, as well as ever.

"We showed to big receipts at Montgomery in the afternoon and long before the evening performance began another big crowd had gathered on the grounds.

"I had been on an inspection tour and stopped behind the fly just as Helena came out prepared to go on. A couple of minutes later Martelli came along and we three spoke together until her five lions were carried out in their small single cages which were placed inside the large steel inclosure in the middle of the arena. Then the band struck up, and Helena with a playful good-bye, drew aside the curtain and skipped lightly out to her lions.

"The music had stopped and as Helena swung open the door that let the first lion out into the inclosure you might have been in a church instead of a circus tent for all the noise that was made. With a crack of her whip the second lion sprang out and took its place. She moved quickly about breaking the deathly silence by cracking her whip and calling each lion by name as she freed them from their small quarters. Four were out and hundreds of eyes were watching her as she sprung the lock on the last cage. With another crack of her whip the door flew back and from where I stood I saw she hesitated, while her eyes sought those of Martelli's in a swift glance. At the same moment an angry roar rang out through the tent and I saw the fifth lion spring from his cage.

"The horror of the next 15 minutes I shall never forget. Helena was knocked to the floor and with a savage snarl the lion leaped upon her. For a moment I was dazed, but the shrieks of the women and the noise of the panic-stricken crowd rushing to the exits around me and I rushed forward.

"I hadn't advanced a dozen steps when I saw Martelli opening the door into the inclosure.

"For God's sake, man, look out!" I cried.

"But he sprang inside and closed the door after him. He had heard my warning and turned for an instant. His face was perfectly white and his dark eyes glistened like a crazy man's. In two bounds he reached the lion and ducking a blow from its paw that would have hurled him across the cage, fell upon the prostrate form of the woman. Before our men could come to the rescue with their red hot irons, the five lions, their savage natures now aroused, were battling with all their terrible ferocity over the victims."

The old fellow stopped at this point in his narrative and a nervous shudder shook his entire frame.

"Man, it was frightful—frightful!" he cried. "I couldn't describe it! In less than half an hour the boys had three lions safely back in their cages while two lay dead upon the floor of the inclosure."

The old showman paused again and smoked for some moments in silence.

"It seems a shame to spoil a pretty little story," he continued, "but since that fellow then shows up life as it really is, I might add that love was responsible for that trouble down there in '95."

"The fact of the business is, Martelli had loved and lost. When once convinced of the uselessness of his wooing, he had looked for a way to end it all. Would he finish himself and leave Helena to marry another? Never! It was jealous love that he offered her and the thought of another man drove him to his act. With his innate cunning he found the way. What could be better than the lions? By simply transferring one of his own into one of Helena's single cages his purpose would be accomplished. He knew the lion would be carried into the arena for Helena's act and without a doubt would attack her, and he to all appearances could rush to her rescue but really to die with the woman he loved in his arms."

"Murder and suicide!" I exclaimed. "But why was the truth never known?"

"It was better as it was," the old fellow replied in a lower, sadder tone. "It wasn't until the second day after that our head menagerie man made a discovery and told me that one of the dead lions belonged to Martelli. Only two others knew the truth and I immediately sent for them. There was no justice to be satisfied, at least not on this earth, and as I waited for the boys I couldn't help thinking about Martelli's old mother, alone in the world, trying to bear up under her grief frightened only by the thought that her boy had been killed while trying to save another's life."

Clerk Completely "Sold."

A well-known German, who is something of a wag, walked into one of the public offices in Cincinnati the other day, and from the noise it was plain that he was wearing a pair of new shoes, or one that had recently been repaired.

One of the clerks remarked about the shoes, and the German said: "I comes pretty near selling dese shoes the other day."

"How was that?" asked the clerk. "I had 'em half-soled," said the German, as he walked out of the office.

A deep groan was heard as he slipped through the door.

A Domestic Incident.

"Wow!" It was Mr. Newpop. He had taken a mouthful of watermelon.

"Marie, what the d-deuce is the matter with this melon?"

"Doesn't it taste good, George?"

"No. Tastes like a hot wind. What's the matter with it?"

"Well, you know, George, the doctor said to—and—and—"

"You balled it! O Lord!" Mr. Newpop settled down into his chair and gazed cross-eyed at the ceiling for a few minutes; then he arose and walked unsteadily away.—Puck.

Lucky for Him.

"The wolves were upon us," he related to the girl he was trying to impress. "Their howling penetrated to our very marrow. We fled for our lives. But each second we knew that the ravenous pack was gaining on us. Closer, closer—at last they were so close that we could feel their muzzles against our legs, so that—"

"Ah," sighed the lady, greatly relieved, "how glad you must have been that they had their muzzles on!"—Everybody's Magazine.

Patriot, Martyr and Coward.

A witty judge of the municipal court of Boston stoutly declared that "a patriot was a man who refused to button his wife's lingerie waist." "A martyr," he went on, "is one who attempts and fails, while a hero tries and succeeds."

"Then what is a coward?" asked a curious bystander.

"Oh, a coward," replied the judge, "is a man who remains single so he won't have to try."—Argonaut.

A Particular Customer.

"You are very young to be a registered pharmacist," said the lady with the massive jaw. "I wish the proprietor to wait on me, and not any young clerk."

"Where is your prescription?" inquired the proprietor, coming forward.

"I have no prescription. What I want is five two-cent postage stamps."

Not Surprised.

"There are 450,000 words in the English language," said the fussy little man in the corner in his usual impressive manner.

"I thought it was more than that," said the mild man with the talkative wife.

And the fussy man collapsed.

Well, here we are again after being absent a week. Reason for absence—Capt. L. W. Burell, Henry Tschirhart and son, William, and your humble scribe left for San Antonio Sunday afternoon to appear as witnesses in a land suit pending in the 73rd Dist. Court of Bexar County, and all returned home hale and hearty Wednesday morning.

We will endeavor to give you the news of the two past weeks as we have been able to gather it.

FIRST WEEK.

Justice Court was grinding Monday.

Hon. Chester Terrell of San Antonio was here on legal business Monday.

Dr. P. C. Richardson, Dentist of San Antonio, came out Monday on professional business.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haby of Biry on Tuesday, Nov. 18, a daughter, and on Wednesday, the 19, to Mr. and Mrs. Max R. Bippert of Sauz a son.

Messrs. Alois Haby, Alex E. Tondre and John Naegelin returned the middle of the week from a business and pleasure trip to Utopia and other points.

Miss Viola Kreisler left Sunday on a visit to kinfolks and friends at San Antonio.

Mrs. Fannie Huehner, Mr. and Mrs. John Dausin, Mrs. Geo. Gahan and daughter and Miss Bertie Huehner spent a few hours with your humble scribe and better half Sunday.

A number of our young people left Sunday morning for San Antonio to witness the Auto Races. While returning in the evening their car got stuck in the mud and one of the occupants had to foot it to town to dispatch a Hack to bring in the others.

SECOND WEEK

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tondre on Monday, Nov. 24, a daughter. Louis Scherrer made a business trip to San Antonio Wednesday, returning the same day.

The Thanksgiving Eve Ball at Wernette's Opera House was pretty well attended despite the inclement weather and mud. Chas. Biediger, Albert Karm and Anton Kilhorn were the lucky winners of the three Turkey Gobblers given away.

The Thanksgiving Ball at the Empire Opera House was also fairly attended. The best of order prevailed all during both occasions.

The horse races which were scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 26, were indefinitely postponed owing to the incessant rains.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robison left Thursday evening for San Antonio on a visit to kinfolks and friends.

Leopold Haby was down from his Ranch on business Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. F. Kilhorn Jr. and children of Hondo spent the past week with Grandpa and Grandma F. Kilhorn Sr. Rain, rain, rain, and some more rain and plenty of mud. Enough said.

Judge Peter Hoog and others went out Sunday and the Judge succeeded in killing two big bucks.

Castroville, Dec. 1, 1913.

Be Jealous of The Beauty of Your Hair

In other words, be careful of it. The beauty of your hair depends upon its health. If it's beautiful, it's healthy. To make it glossy, bright, silky-soft—to make it fall more easily into the graceful, wavy folds of the coiffure—to make it stay where you put it—use Harmony Hair Beautifier. This dainty liquid dressing is just what it is named—a beautifier. If your hair is beautiful now, use it to make it even more so, and to preserve its loveliness. If it is not beautiful now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will improve its appearance in a way to please you, or money back. Its rose fragrance will overcome the oily smell of your hair. Easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.—Martin Drug Co., Hondo, Texas.

WATER! WATER!

The Discovery of Subterranean Lakes and Impounding of Rainfall Reclaiming Arid Regions.

The cry of Water! Water! as it echoes throughout the arid regions of the state and this abundant liquid gushes to the surface to moisten the parched earth, is a welcome sound to every farmer. Subterranean lakes are so frequently discovered and rainfall so easily impounded, that water has become largely a question of effort.

Water has caused more trouble by its abundance or scarcity and has more often become a welcome or a disagreeable guest, than any other element in nature. Its proper distribution has baffled even the skill of divinity and getting it in the right place at the right time is one of the greatest problems that confronts the people of today.

The solution of this important problem insofar as human ingenuity has been able to solve it, will be demonstrated at the exhibits of irrigating machinery at the State Fair of Texas at Dallas, Oct. 18th to Nov. 2nd. Machinery adapted to every need and condition from pumping water into the kitchen sink to irrigating a league of land will be shown and its utility proved.

These exhibits are as interesting to the housewife as to the ranchman. Drawing water from the well is one of the most back-breaking of household duties and the shifting of this burden to machinery is one of the educational features of the Fair. There are a million homes in Texas that should be equipped with the latest modern conveniences in these labor-saving devices.

We have 5,238 farms under irrigation in the State, containing 451,000 acres. The bulk of our irrigated lands is devoted to the culture of rice, the total acreage devoted to this cereal being 287,000. Alfalfa is the second important irrigated crop and 13,780 acres are devoted to its culture while corn takes third place with 9,068 acres. The cost of construction of Texas' irrigation systems is estimated at $13,500,000 by the Federal Census Bureau. It costs approximately an average of $3.50 per acre to irrigate land, depending upon the character of the crop. The yield per acre of crops under irrigation approximates 45 per cent higher than that of those raised under natural methods.

Heartburn is a symptom of indigestion. Take a dose of HERBINE in such cases. The pain disappears instantly. The bowels operate speedily and you feel fine, vigorous and cheerful. Price 50c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

There are so many laws that everyone should be grateful that they aren't all enforced.

To Prevent Blood Poisoning apply at once the wonderful old reliable DR. PORTER'S ANTISEPTIC HEALING OIL, a surgical dressing that relieves pain and heals at the same time. Not a liniment. 25c. 50c. $1.00.

To some women a clear complexion seems to be of more consequence than a clear conscience.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 25c.

The average man wears out a dozen pairs of holdbacks to one pair of tugs.

An Everyday Cake

Here is a simple and inexpensive cake that can be varied in many ways with different frostings and icings. It looks a little nicer baked in a tube pan, but will be equally as good baked in a square loaf.

K C Gold Cake

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. 1 cup butter; 1 cup sugar; yolks of 4 eggs, beaten light; 1 cup flour, less 2 level tablespoonfuls; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1 cup milk; grated rind of 1 orange.

Sift flour and baking powder together three times; cream butter and sugar, beat yolks of eggs, add these to creamed mixture, and lastly add the moisture and flour alternately, beating batter until smooth. Gold Cake can only be made successfully by beating yolks of eggs, very, very creamy and light lemon colored, using a rotary beater. The rotary beater is the only beater that will do justice to the yolks of eggs. The beating kills all egg taste and improves the texture of the cake.

Cocoanut Frosting

Beat the whites of 2 eggs dry; gradually beat in half a cup of sifted confectioner's sugar and continue the beating until the frosting is smooth, thick and glossy; then beat in grated cocoanut, fresh or prepared, and spread upon the cake. This frosting is made thick by beating rather than by sugar.

Save this recipe. You will want to use it frequently. Or better, send us the colored certificate packed in each 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder and we will mail you "The Cook's Book" containing this and 89 other baking recipes equally good—all by Mrs. Hill. Jacques Mig. Co., Chicago.

UNFAIR TO THE DRUGGIST

The Old Joke About "Something Just as Good," Doesn't Apply to This Drug Store

You have probably heard dozens of times the old story that a drug store was a place to get "something just as good." There is at least one druggist in the world that you can't say this about.

It is certain that an inferior article will never be substituted for a guaranteed one by W. H. Windrow's drug store. Take for instance a safe, reliable remedy for constipation and liver trouble like Dodson's Liver Tonic. This harmless vegetable liquid has proved so satisfactory a liver stimulant and reliever of biliousness, and to entirely take the place of calomel without any danger or restriction of habits or diet, that there are dozens of preparations springing up with imitations of its claims.

But Dodson's Liver Tonic is guaranteed to do all that is claimed for it, and if you are not satisfied with it, W. H. Windrow will hand your money back with a smile. Any person going to this store for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic will be sure of getting a large bottle of this genuine remedy in exchange for his half dollar.
